

Moelis Experience Program

2025 Moelis Veterans Program (MVP) – US

About the Program:

- The Moelis Veterans Program (MVP) aims to provide veterans who have had limited exposure to the industry and are considering their career options with a unique opportunity to gain an introduction to the Investment Banking industry through a full day experience.

During the Program you will:

- Gain exposure to deal activity across industries in our key business areas
- Meet with senior and junior bankers who will share their industry expertise while helping you develop a supportive network at Moelis
- Interact with members of our Veterans Employee Network to learn more about their experiences and diverse backgrounds
- Learn best practices around fundamental financial concepts and technical skills by participating in mock interviews and interview prep sessions.
- Engage with your formal mentor from our Veterans Employee Network both during and following MVP

Application:

- This Program is open to Veterans currently in their sophomore and junior year of college with a scheduled graduation date between December 2026 and June 2028, and to veterans who are transitioning into the workforce with a completed undergraduate degree (and are not currently seeking a graduate degree)
- Application including resume and personal statement (200-300 words) addressing what you hope to gain from the Program to be submitted through the Moelis & Company website in a combined PDF document by 11:55pm ET on Sunday, September 28th.

Timeline:

- Please note applications for the 2025 Moelis Veterans Program are now open with a deadline of Sunday, September 28th.
- Details regarding the Program and application can be found here.
- Program takes place on Thursday, November 13th in the Moelis NY Office (must be available to attend in person).
